

THE THIRTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF AMERICAN SAMOA

Second Regular Session

Begun and held at Fagatogo, Tutuila, American Samoa on Monday, the fourteenth day of January two thousand and thirteen

AN ACT LIMITING THE LIABILITY OF THE GOVERNMENT UNDER THE GOVERNMENT TORT LIABILITY ACT TO $500,000; AMENDING SECTION 43.1203 A.S.C.A.

Preamble:

WHEREAS, the Government Tort Liability Act presently contains no limit on the exposure of the government to a claim filed under the Act; and

WHEREAS, as time passes and the economy continues to evolve the value that can be placed on potential claims against the government continues to increase; and

WHEREAS, the government serves all the people of American Samoa and must be expected to continue to do so in an uninterrupted manner, notwithstanding the periodic filing of just claims for which it is found to be liable; and

WHEREAS, it is reasonable to place a limit on the liability the government may face for a claim filed under the Government Tort Liability Act, so that the government may be financially able to continue to serve all the people of American Samoa despite facing potential liability for claims in significant dollar amounts.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF AMERICAN SAMOA:

Section 1. 43.1203 is amended to read:

“43.1203 Liability of government--Exceptions.

(a) The government is liable, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, in the same manner and to the same extent as a private individual under like circumstances, but its liability is limited to $500,000, and it is not liable for interest prior to judgment or for punitive damages, except that in a case wherein death is caused and the law of the place where the act or omission complained of occurred provides, or has been construed to provide, for damages only punitive in nature, the government is liable for actual or compensatory damages, measured by the pecuniary injuries resulting from such death to the persons respectively for whose benefit the action was brought.

(b) The provisions of this chapter do not apply to:

(1) any claim based upon act or omission of an employee of the government exercising due care in the execution of a statute or regulation, whether such statute or regulation is valid;

(2) any claim based upon the exercise or performance of, or the failure to exercise or perform, a discretionary function or duty on the part of an officer or employee, whether or not the discretion involved is abused;

(3) any claim regarding the assessment or collection of any tax or customs duty, or the detention of any goods or merchandise, by any law officer, customs or tax officer, or any other law enforcement officer;

(4) any claim for which a remedy is provided elsewhere in the laws of the government;

(5) any claim arising out of assault, battery, false imprisonment, false arrest, malicious prosecution, abuse of process, libel, slander, misrepresentation, deceit or interference with contract rights;

(6) any claim arising in a foreign country.

(c) Action under this section may not be instituted for any sum in excess of the amount of the claim presented to the Attorney General under 43.1205, except where the increased amount is based upon newly discovered evidence not reasonably discoverable at the time of presenting the claim to the Attorney General, or upon allegation and proof of intervening facts, relating to the amount of the claim."

Sec 2. Effective date.

In accordance with Article II, Section 19 of the Revised Constitution of American Samoa, this bill shall become effective 60 days after the end of the session at which it has been passed.
